TTM+ 2018 Post Tour

PT7: Blessing Trails in Bangkok Old Town and Foodie Experiences

(2 days 1 night)

Price 125 USD

Saturday, 16 June, 2018 : Pattaya - Bangkok

- Morning
- Pick up from the hotel and head to Bangkok.
  - Visit Wat Suthat Thepwararam and the Giant Swing. The temple is well-blended in Thai and Chinese-styled arts, which flourished in the reign of King Rama III. The Giant Swing was formerly used in an annual Brahman rite to honor the Hindu God Shiva.
  - Walk to Devasathan Bot Phram (Brahmin Shrine), which was constructed at the same time of the Giant Swing. Pray for a blessing from the four-faced Brahma statue. Also, the images of supreme Hindu gods are housed here.
  - Head to Sam Praeng community, Bangkok's historical district which is known for classic shop-houses and a variety of local dishes.
  - Lunch at Chotechitr, Meghan Markle's favourite Thai restaurant (reported by website: www.delish.com on December 17, 2017). Then have fun trying different street foods and desserts in the area.
- Afternoon
- Visit the Tiger God Shrine, one of the most renowned Teochew Chinese temples in Bangkok. It houses statues of Chinese Supreme Beings, which are highly venerated among both the Thai and Chinese people.
- Evening
- Dinner and an overnight stay in Bangkok.

Sunday, 17 June, 2018 : Bangkok

- Morning
- Check out and enjoy a Thai Cooking Class. Learn the uniqueness of Thai food, ingredients, and the secret of cuisine followed by hands-on cooking class.
  - Lunch by your own creation at the cooking school.
- Afternoon
- Visit the Museum of Floral Culture, which is beautifully landscaped and a preserved 100-year-old teak mansion of colonial architecture. Meet the owner and a famous Thai flower designer before walking to the Dok Mai Thai Salon du The to relax and enjoy afternoon tea with a garden view.
  - Transfer to Suvarnabhumi Airport (transit time around 1 Hrs.) to continue with your own schedule.
